2008-2009
CONSENT FOR STUDENT RELEASE OF INFORMATION

STUDENT'S NAME _____ OSU ID # _____

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's education records. Educational records include student account and financial aid records which are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent from the student. In accordance with FERPA, it is necessary for the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships and the Office of Business Affairs at Oregon State University to obtain written consent from the student in order to release any financial aid or student account information to a third party.

Confidential Status established by the student through the OSU Registrar's Office overrides all release requests on file with the Student Accounts Office and the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships. No information will be released while a student's registrar record is marked Confidential, regardless of this signed release on file.

This consent is valid from July 1, 2008 to June 30, 2009 and may be rescinded prior to June 30, 2009 only by written consent of the student.
