Oregon State University recognizes academic achievement and promotes diversity by awarding scholarships to deserving students.

Oregon State offers several types of scholarships, and it's easy to find out what we can offer you. Just submit the OSU Application for Undergraduate Admission — including the Scholarship Application page — before the Feb. 1 priority consideration deadline. Recipients are selected based on GPA, SAT or ACT scores, Insight Résumé, leadership and community and student activities.

Need-based scholarships are awarded via the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), due Feb. 28.
