

Sample Page for Submissions to the 2007 Conference on Inductive Logic Programming

No Author Given

No Institute Given

Abstract. The abstract should summarize the contents of the paper in about 200 words or less. It should be written using the abstract environment.

Key words: Please include 3-4 keywords right below the text of the abstract.

1 Introduction

ILP's publisher, Springer, strongly encourages you to use L<sup>A</sup>T<sub>E</sub>X 2<sub>ε</sub> for preparation of the document.

Please go to Springer's web page at <http://www.springer.de/comp/lncs/authors.html> to retrieve the latex style files, the template that produced this document, and further instructions on formatting your submission.

1.1 Anonymity

Please note that reviewing is double-blind. The authors and the institute fields in the latex file must be commented out. When citing your previous work, do not use words like "we" and "our." Instead cite your work in the same manner you cite the work of others (e.g., "Previously Smith and Jones (2006) ...").

Acknowledgments

Please do not include acknowledgments to preserve anonymity.