IIFET Executive Committee Seeks Nominations for 2014 Distinguished Service Award

A primary goal of IIFET is to improve the interactions between academia, trade, and government officials in all countries about fisheries and aquaculture policy and factors which affect international trade in seafood and, since 1994, IIFET's Executive Committee has recognized this key role by giving the IIFET Distinguished Service Award.

The Distinguished Service Award is given to an individual who has made significant contributions and had an important effect on the ability of individuals in these different professional areas and countries to exchange information, data, and perspectives on fisheries issues. A further consideration in choosing the recipient is the individual's contribution to the theory and/or application of economic science to international fisheries industries, trade, management, and/or policy.

The Distinguished Service Award winner will give an address at the next IIFET biennial conference (IIFET 2014 Australia).

Process:

The Executive Committee solicits your nominations of individuals to be considered for this award. Nominations can be sent by email to Ann.L.Shriver@oregonstate.edu who will forward materials to the IIFET Executive Committee, which serves as the selection committee for the DSA.

You may provide up to five pages (single spaced) justification for your nomination, and you may send up to three extra items of documentation as attachments or in the body of the email, such as a CV, information on awards, citations, major publications, or other items which help to make the case for your nominee.

Deadlines:

The deadline for nominations is November 22, 2013.

The selected winner will be announced in December, 2013 or January 2014.
