ALFALFA VARIETAL ADAPTATION NURSERIES

During 1954, two alfalfa varietal adaptation nurseries were established. The nurseries were established on the farms of Wiley Clowers in Madras and J. C. Minson & Son in Powell Butte.

Other than to observe that reasonable stands were obtained, no information was taken during 1954.

The nurseries contained the following varieties:

- Williamsburg
- Narragansett
- Nevada Synthetic A.
- Nomad
- DuFuits
- Calivende
- Ladak
- Ranger
- Grimm
- Atlantic
- Vernal
- Rhizoma
- Orestan
