Jamie has been a Registered Dietitian for 5 years and has worked with OSU Extension for the past 3 years. She is new to Klamath County, moving here with her husband in July 2011. She spent the 5 years before that in Central Oregon, part of which she spent as an Instructor teaching nutrition education for the OSU Extension OFNP program for Crook, Deschutes, and Jefferson Counties. Before coming to Oregon she went to Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo for her bachelors degree in nutrition and her Dietetic Internship. Her passion focuses around helping people take small steps toward a healthier lifestyle. She sees Klamath's local food system playing a crucial role in providing healthy foods to all people in the area. She is an avid vegetable gardener and is determined to master the skills to grow food well in our climate! How does she feel about moving to Klamath Falls? She has quickly fallen in love with the beautiful area and the genuine people, and has every intention of staying awhile and promoting Klamath pride!
