Oregon general revenues vs. OUS appropriations

While Oregon's general fund revenues have grown over the last 20 years, appropriations to the state's public universities have been relatively flat. Twenty years ago, universities received a 15 percent share of general fund appropriations. That share is 6 percent in the current biennium. Oregon continues to rank among the bottom ten states in terms of public support provided to its seven university campuses.

LAB: Legislatively Approved Budget
GRB: Governor's Recommended Budget

Biennium

*Includes federal stimulus
Estimated; subject to change

Source: Oregon University System