Academic Requirements Committee
The Academic Requirements Committee considers and acts on Student Petitions referred to the Committee by the Office of the Registrar. Such petitions normally request approval of deviations from Academic Regulations or procedures and, in special cases, may require interpretations of the regulations. In considering academic matters or problems, the Committee consults with appropriate individuals, committees, or academic units. The Committee may recommend changes for improvement of regulations or procedures to the Academic Regulations Committee. The Committee consists of seven Faculty, one of whom may be retired on a 1039-hour appointment, with at least one undergraduate academic advisor, two Students (one graduate, one undergraduate) and the Registrar (or representative), ex-officio, non-voting.

Academic Standing Committee
The Committee consists of a minimum of seven and up to nine Faculty, up to three of whom may be retired faculty who are still employed part-time by the University, and two Student members, and the Registrar (or representative), ex-officio, non-voting. The committee chair is also a non-voting member, except in the case of a tie vote by Committee. Committee members involved in a student’s request for exception may not participate in the vote.

Curriculum Council
The Curriculum Council reviews the University curricula in an effort to implement the long-range educational mission of the University. After careful study, it recommends the introduction of new programs or changes in existing programs. It makes recommendations regarding major curricular changes proposed by the academic units of the University. It attempts by coordination to bring about a suitable and rational balance of academic programs. It delegates to the Council's Chair responsibility for approving minor curricular changes. It approves minor curricular changes. It formulates curricular policy and publishes, in cooperation with the Office of Academic Programs and Academic Assessment, a Curricular Procedures Handbook. Also, in cooperation with the Office of Academic Programs and Academic Assessment, it conducts periodic reviews of all undergraduate programs and reports the results of these reviews to the Provost.

The Council consists of at least nine and up to thirteen Faculty members and two Student members. In addition, the following are to be ex-officio members, non-voting: A member of the Budgets & Fiscal Planning Committee, appointed by its chair, serves as a liaison member, non-voting. The Director of Academic Programs, ex-officio, non-voting, serves as the Council's Executive Secretary. Three Information Services faculty members, non-voting, are appointed annually by the Vice Provost for Information Services, one represents the library, one represents Extended Campus and one represents instructional technology. The Catalog Coordinator and Academic Programs and Academic Assessment Coordinator shall also serve as ex-officio, non-voting members. The Director of Academic Programs and Academic Assessment and one person appointed annually to represent the following: Budgets & Fiscal Planning Committee, Registrar’s Office, University Libraries, and Extended Campus. The following areas shall be represented by liaison members, non-voting, and appointed annually: OSU-Cascades Campus, Academic Advising Council, and Instructional Technology.

Faculty Recognition and Awards Committee
The Faculty Recognition and Awards Committee formulates policies concerning the recognition of outstanding persons, including deserving Faculty members, solicits and suggests candidates for recognition, and makes its recommendations to the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate and to the Executive Office. The Committee assists the President in making presentations of awards. The Committee shall consist of six Faculty members, one of whom may be retired, and one Student representative. A member of the Advancement of Teaching Committee shall participate in the selection of the Elizabeth P. Ritchie Distinguished Professor Awards, the OSU Extended Education Faculty Achievement Awards, the Richard M. Bressler Senior Faculty Teaching Award, and the OSU Faculty Teaching Excellence Awards. A member of the Academic Advising Council shall participate in the selection of the Dar Reese Excellence in Advising Award.

Library Committee
The Library Committee advises the University Librarian in (1) meeting the learning, instruction, and resource needs of students, faculty and staff; (2) formulating library policies in relation to circulation, budgets, services, and development of resources for instruction and research; and (3) interpreting the needs and policies of the library to the University. The Committee consists of nine Faculty members, ideally providing a broad representation of academic disciplines, and three Student members, including at least one undergraduate and one graduate student, and the University Librarian as an ex-officio, non-voting member. One faculty member may be retired.

Undergraduate Admissions Committee
The Undergraduate Admissions Committee decides whether to admit any potential undergraduate applicant not meeting the stated admission requirements as established by the Oregon State Board of Higher Education and who requests consideration by the Committee. Previous academic experience, test scores, recommendations, and other criteria are reviewed in the process of determining which requests for exemptions should be approved. The Committee also serves as the focal point for discussion and review of policy changes related to undergraduate admissions and makes recommendations to the Assistant Provost for Academic Programs or Faculty Senate, as appropriate. The Committee consists of ten Faculty and one Student. Of the ten faculty members, there shall be at least five Teaching faculty, one college head advisor, and one representative from International Programs, and up to two retired faculty on 1039-hour appointments. All members should be available to serve during the summer since most of the committee activity, in fact, takes place during the summer. In addition, a representative from the Office of Admissions shall be ex-officio, voting.
