Hybrid Course

Definition proposed to the Curriculum Council from Susie Brubaker-Cole.

A hybrid course includes both regularly scheduled, on-site classroom meetings and significant online components that replace at least 50% of regularly scheduled class meeting time.

In addition to classroom meetings, this hybrid course includes significant online components that reduce classroom meeting time.

Other Definitions:

Chemeketa Community College

Hybrid Course – A course where some of the on-site class time is replaced with Internet-delivered instruction.

Central Oregon Community College

This course is a blend of face-to-face classroom instruction with online instruction resulting in a reduction of classroom seat-time.

Resolution from Curriculum Council.

Following discussion of various possibilities, Greg moved to have the designator in the ‘type’ field shown as ‘hybrid’, in addition to the existing text; the comments field would contain an additional explanation; the time/date would be the actual time/date for class meeting(s) and TBA hybrid; and the location would be the actual location and TBA; motion seconded. The motion passed with no dissenting votes.

Draft Reservation Policy

Beginning with the Fall 2012 term, all hybrid designated courses must pair up with another course of a similar size and pedagogical instructional style, to be taught in the same room at the same time, but on days that fit the overall scheduling structure at OSU. Examples of pairing day models are MW, TR, MF, or WF. Any hybrid designated course that does not pair up must be offered at or after 4:00pm to be scheduled into a General Purpose classroom or must be in a departmental classroom. All courses must continue to adhere to the Zone Scheduling rules that OSU has adopted and enforces for all courses regardless of which classroom a course is taught in.

Issues:

Does the Hybrid class have be uniform throughout the term? For example, could the class meet for 5 weeks in class, 5 weeks online? Or vice versa?

Does the pattern have to be consistent? Could they meet one week in class, next week all online.

Could the class be more than 50% online? If so, how much more?

Is there a minimum amount of seat time required? If so, how much?
