Curriculum Content as Scholarship

A faculty member’s scholarly work, including writing and dissemination of curriculum content, will be evaluated objectively for evidence of excellence in their scholarship or creative activity.

All curriculum content that is to be reviewed as scholarship will follow the OSU Promotion and Tenure Guidelines and Policies.

Scholarship will be evaluated according to the following OSU P&T criteria. Scholarship, including original curriculum content, will be:

- Intellectual work whose significance is validated by peers and which is communicated.
- Such work in its diverse forms is based on:
  - a high level of professional expertise,
  - must give evidence of originality,
  - must be documented and validated as through peer review or critique,
  - must be communicated in appropriate ways so as to have impact on or significance for publics beyond the University, or for the discipline itself.
