

Corporate Underwriting Policy

LAST UPDATED

DECEMBER 23, 2002

1. Corporate Underwriting shall be defined as support from a commercial, profit or non-profit organization for an event sponsored by a recognized student organization. Support will include the donation of dollars and/or materials of monetary value provided to the student of an event.
2. The sponsoring student organization shall provide, with the registration of events form, a signed agreement with the Corporate Underwriter outlining the physical and financial conditions placed on both parties for the duration of the event. (see other side)
3. When the Corporate Underwriter is promoting alcohol and/or tobacco products, a dollar amount equal to ten percent of the total corporate donation, shall be placed in an assigned university account for the sole purpose of providing education.
4. When the Corporate Underwriter is promoting alcohol and/or tobacco products, promotional material shall not, in graphic or written form, depict the actual use of the product.
5. All promotional materials used in conjunction with the event will clearly indicate that the student organization is the sponsor of the event. The name and/or logo of the Corporate Underwriter shall not appear larger than 75% of the size of the name and/or logo of the sponsoring student organization on all printed material.
