

EXPLORATORY COURSES

The following courses are listed by college. These are some classes that may be interesting for exploring departments. Courses with a "*" are being offered Fall 2005. Because many of these classes are fall term only, so the best recourse at this point to see if a course is being offered is to check the online schedule of classes -- <http://catalog.oregonstate.edu/SOCSearcher.aspx> Courses indicated with a "bc" will fulfill a baccalaureate core requirement.
