University Housing and Dining Services Information Release Form

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student’s educational records. Educational records include Housing and Dining occupancy, billing, and address records, which are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent from the student. In accordance with FERPA, it is necessary for University Housing and Dining Services at Oregon State University to obtain written consent from a student in order release any housing related records.
